

Dieppe Casualties

Ottawa, Dec. 26 (CP).—The Canadian (Active) Army in its 234th overseas casualty list of the war today gave the names of 50 other ranks who were reported missing after last August's Battle of Dieppe and who now are reported prisoners of war.

The list brought the unofficial total of casualties in the Dieppe fight, in which Canadians formed most of the attacking force, to 420 killed, 571 wounded, 1,081 missing and 1,208 prisoners of war.
