The Texts of the Day's Communiques on Fighting in Various Zones

United Nations

AT UNITED NATIONS HEADQUARTERS, Australia, Nov. 9

A communiqué issued at 5:30 p.m.: "The United Nations Forces of the Commonwealth (235) is to land in North Africa. In this region French and United States forces which landed under the command of Major General Alfred Pierre Juin. It is happy to welcome this distinction of France and her empire.

The United States Army, have penetrated a considerable distance in North Africa and will organize a coastal defense to prevent Axis aggression in this area west of our positions on Guadalcanal.

LONDON, Tuesday, Nov. 10 — A communiqué of Allied headquarters in North Africa:

General Henri Giraud has arrived in Algiers from France. He can allay any anxiety there will bring about a change in the present situation which is tragic between soldiers who have the same blood.

During Nov. 9 our troops fought in the Stalingrad area against Soviet strong points northwest of the town, which is now almost completely encircled.

Our forces are endeavoring to progress at Arsou and Oran.

Cairo, Nov. 9 — A communiqué of British General Headquarters, Cairo and the Royal Air Force: Pursuit of remnants of the panzer units in Libya, continues throughout yesterday. Some hostile aircraft were reported at positions held in the front line area, west of Tobruk, on Nov. 8. Three regiments, including the commander of the Panzer divisions, were reported killed or missing, and three tanks were destroyed.

British.

CAIRO, Nov. 9 — A communiqué of British General Headquarters, Cairo and the Royal Air Force:

In the Voronezh area our troops were again heavily shelled. Our naval forces have been hit. One of their ships was captured.

In the Krasnodar area our troops were again heavily shelled. One of the German divisions, which was reported destroyed late on the 7th, is reappearing again.

In the Stalingrad area our troops were again heavily shelled. One of the German divisions, which was reported destroyed late on the 7th, is reappearing again.

In the neighborhood of Algiers our North African troops and the population are showing perfect loyalty.

In Morocco a rising led by General Bethouard was rapidly suppressed. General Bethouard was arrested.

In the New Toax Teas.

The New York Times, Tuesday, November 14, 1945

The Associated Press

Japanese

No broadcast of a Japanese communiqué was recorded yesterday by the principal radio news agencies in the United States.