

Secret Devices Made in Canada

Numerous secret devices, such as radio-locators, are being produced in Canada. Secret instruments from plants in the Dominion are being used by the united nations. Some of them are delicate instruments which were not made in Canada before the war, and in some cases had not been invented. They include navigating instruments for planes, ships and fighting vehicles; intricate fire control instruments for the Royal Navy; range finders and optical instruments of all kinds.

886-002-013

149
WAR EUROPEAN 1939
CANADA
MUNITIONS