

Give and Take in Libya War

British thrust across desert more than a year ago carried them to El Agheila.

German and Italian push to Egyptian border, encircling Tobruk en route, was stopped a year ago, less one day.

British hit westward again last November and drive had taken them short of El Agheila up to Jan. 22.

Germans then began to push back to El Tmimi and Mekili and Tuesday night renewed the drive with a thrust eastward. A fierce tank battle rages near Bir Hacheim (A). The Nazi spearhead was repulsed around El Adem (B).
