Says They 'More Than Earned'
Hard Lot and Urges People to Avoid Sympathy

OFFERS 10-POINT CHARTER

Every Jew Is an Enemy of the Germans and All Must Be Silenced, He Writes

BERLIN, Nov. 13 (UP)—Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels charged today that the Jews had brought on the war in hope of destroying Germany and declared that "they are suffering no injustice by the treatment we bestow on them—they more than earned it."

Writing in the forthcoming Sunday issue of the Propaganda Ministry's weekly publication, Das Reich, Dr. Goebbels promulgated a new ten-point charter for the Nazi campaign against the Jews. He exhorted all Germans to harbor no sympathy for the Jews in connection with the government's measures against them.

Their fate, he said, "is indeed hard, but more than deserved," adding, "In this historical showdown every Jew is our enemy, regardless of whether he is vegetating in a Polish ghetto or delays his parasitic existence in Berlin or Hamburg, or blows the war trumpets in New York and Washington."

The current developments, Dr. Goebbels said, the fulfilling Adolf Hitler's prophecy on Jan. 30, 1939, that the Jewish people in Europe would be exterminated if "international finance succeeds in hurling the nations into a world war."

The ten points listed by Goebbels were textually:

1. The Jews are our ruination.

They contrived and brought on this war. With it they want to destroy the German Reich and our people. This plan must be thwarted.

2. There is no difference among Jews. Every Jew is the sworn enemy of the German people.

3. Every German soldier who falls in this war enters a debt in the account of the Jews. They have him on their consciences and therefore must pay for it.

"4. If one fears the Jewish Star of David he thereby is marked as the people's enemy. Any one who, despite that, still cultivates private relations with him belongs to him and must be appraised and treated the same as the Jew.

"5. Jews are enjoying the protection of enemy foreign countries. Further proof of their destructive role among our people is unnecessary.

6. Jews are the enemy's emissaries among us. Whoever stands at their side deserts to the enemy in war.

7. The Jews have no right to pose among us as equals. Wherever they speak up in the street, in the lines before the stores and in transportation vehicles, they are to be silenced, not only because they are fundamentally wrong but because they are Jews and have no voice in the community.

8. If Jews come to you in a sentimental manner, then realize that they are attempting to take advantage of your forgetfulness; show them immediately that you see through them and punish them with ostracism.

9. After defeat, the decent enemy deserves our generosity. But the Jew is no decent enemy, he merely acts like one.

10. Jews are to blame for the war. They are suffering no injustice in the treatment we bestow on them. They more than earned it.

Dr. Goebbels concluded with the warning that it is the government's business to "finally finish" with the Jews, and that nobody has the right to "act on his own responsibility."
