

MONTREAL MAJOR MADE DIRECTOR

London, Nov. 22.—(CP Cable)—Major J. Alec Edmison, of Montreal, has been appointed deputy regional director for displaced persons on the Continent, the European regional office of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration announced to-day.

Major Edmison has been with the judge advocate general's branch at Canadian military headquarters here for the last three years in charge of its legal aid section. He is returning to Canada shortly, where he will be placed on the reserve list of the officers, and will return to London prior to taking up his new duties.

It is expected that at first he will be attached to the 1st Canadian Army as Unrra liaison officer for the displaced persons branch which looks after bombed and homeless people in Europe.
